ANNUAL KING AND QUEEN

Marsha Owens
Billy Shelby

In Memory of Deborah Jones

August 15, 1957 — October 26, 1973

To Deborah

With a smile on her face
And a song in her heart
We all never dreamed
That soon we would part

As we stood and we sang
On Thursday just past
We all did not guess
That this was the last

How sad life does seem
As we go day by day
Oh yes! It was Friday
That night we would play

School let out early
The mood was so gay
We had no idea
It was Deborah's last day

To laugh and to love
The life she did know
But later that night
To her maker did go

It seems oh so cruel
We know not just why
That some of us live
While some have to die

We laugh and we love
Those friends we all know
As time goes our way
Yes - on we do go

But down in our heart
This thing we all know
That God knows what's best
When we come; when we go

But as you look down
On us from above
We want you to know
We send you our love

The Rose Beyond The Wall

Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.

As it grew and blossomed fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier heights,
It came to a crevice in the wall
Through which there shone a beam of light.

Onward it crept with added strength
With never a thought of fear or pride,
It followed the light through the crevice's length
And unfolded itself on the other side.

The light, the dew, the broadening view
Were found the same as they were before,
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve
And make our courage faint and fall?
Nay! Let us faith and hope receive
The rose still grows beyond the wall.

Scattering fragrance far and wide
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will forevermore.

Frink

TO THE STUDENTS OF DETROIT ISD

As you know, this annual is a record of your accomplishments here in DHS. What you do here today will be reminisced by you and your children in future years. I feel that you will get a lot of pleasure in looking back on this year as a banner year in the history of our school.

This is the year of the Eagle. We will remember this year as a year of accomplishment. Many honors have been won by our students. We will remember our fine basketball teams and the wonderful sportsmanship and school spirit exhibited at the games. We will remember the many scholastic honors won by individuals. We will remember this as the last year in the old high school building.

Best wishes to each of you as you enter into our world. May you always be proud of your school and may you always conduct your life in such a way that your school will be proud of you.

Our World at DHS

Is Fast Coming to an End

As you can see from this annual, our last days at Detroit High School were filled with many busy and fun-filled hours. We the Seniors of '74 look back on our world in school with some regret that we didn't try harder but with a smile on our faces for we were so privileged to grow up in a small school and feel the closeness of being neighbors and friends. We have sweated through many ball games and tests together; we have worked and played together; we have laughed together and cried a little together. Yet, now we must look to the future to a whole new world; and as we do so, we want to say many, many thanks to our parents, our community, and our teachers and school administrators for guiding and putting-up with us for these 12 years.
